Standardised Price List

All funeral directors are legally required to publish this Price List for a standardised set of products and services.

This is to help you think through your options and make choices, and to let you compare prices between different funeral directors (because prices can vary).

This is a funeral where family and friends have a ceremony, event or service for the person who’s died at the same time as they attend their burial or cremation.

This is a funeral where family and friends may choose to have a ceremony, event or service for the person who’s died, but they do not attend the burial or cremation itself.

Please discuss any specific religious, belief-based and/or cultural requirements that you have with the funeral director.
Additional funeral director products and services

This funeral director may be able to supply a range of optional, additional products and services, or to arrange (on your behalf) for a third party to supply them. Examples include:

- Additional mileage (price per mile) £0
- Collection and delivery of ashes £0
- Urgent collection (from a location that doesn’t have a mortuary) £250
- Unique urn £75 to £395

The funeral director can give you a full list of what they can supply. They are likely to charge for these additional products and services, so you may choose to take care of some arrangements without their involvement, or you can use a different supplier.

¹ In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, you will usually need to pay doctors’ fees as well. This is the charge for two doctors to sign the Medical Certificates for Cremation.

² You’ll usually need to pay a fee to remove any medical devices, prosthesis or objects that cannot be safely cremated with the person such as pacemakers, metal implants, metal plates and battery operated devices. You can specify to your funeral coordinator if you would like any items to be returned to you.
